- Supplemental music and other books may be recommended for personal practice and further development.

Recommended Materials

There are certain items that will help in the understanding and improvement of music literacy and performance, below are two of the most needed tools for music students. It is recommended to purchase a real metronome/tuner, but a smartphone app will be an acceptable beginning tool.

- Metronome
- Tuner

Solo & Ensembles

Solo & Ensembles are recommended for this course, but not required. Solos and Ensembles are a valuable tool for all music students and will greatly aid in the student's success as a performer via critical thinking, collaborative work and live performances. These also will build confidence and aesthetic appreciation through performing. Performing at Solo & Ensemble Assessments includes costs such as paying for an accompanist, Sheet Music Originals, and entry fees.

All County Honor Bands (Extra Credit)

If any students choose to audition, prepare and perform in an Honor Band they will earn Extra Credit. Dates will be announced as the School District provides the information.

Grading/Attendance

- The student is responsible for all materials presented during class. If the student misses a class it is the student's responsibility to ask for make-up work or materials missed. Much of the course tests will be based on class lectures.
- Grades will be given for rehearsal preparation. This grade will evaluate the student's preparation, performance, improvement and other rehearsal related assignments.
- Grades will be given for rehearsal participation. This grade will evaluate the student's participation and rehearsal etiquette.
